Valuation summary

Newsec Advice Oy (“Newsec”) has conducted a property valuation of a property portfolio owned by Suomen Yliopistokiinteistöt Oy (together “Portfolio”). The Portfolio consists of 84 properties. Value is calculated for 61 individual assets and all properties are included in calculations.

Date of valuation is 31 December 2020.

Valuation is conducted by income valuation method (discounted cash flow) and property values are based on forecasted cash flows received from the properties and terminal values of the properties. Estimations regarding future cash flows are based on following items:

- Current rents, operating and capital expenses received from Suomen Yliopistokiinteistöt Oy
- Estimated market rents after current lease agreements
- Estimation of market and regional development
- Future opportunities and threats of the properties
- Operating and capital expenses in similar properties, compared to target properties
- For the assets currently under construction or renovation have been valued taking into account the estimated start of lease period and the estimated construction and renovation costs not yet paid.

Estimated cash flows are discounted with estimated, market-based, discount factor. Used parameters are based on Newsec’s opinion of investors act in real estate investment market.

The sales comparison method has been used as a supporting method. Unused building rights have been appraised using the sales comparison approach.

Transaction costs and taxes are not considered in the valuation. This valuation determines the unlevered market value of the subject. It does not take into consideration any mortgages or debt associated to the subjects of valuation.

Newsec has conducted site visits to the most significant assets which constitute most of the whole value of the portfolio.

The valuation does not completely fulfill the requirements of a Finnish AKA- valuation in terms of extent, accuracy, nor verification of the input values.

Market value is estimated to be EUR 1,639,100,000

(One billion six hundred thirty-nine million one hundred thousand euros)
